October 24 of each year is celebrated around the world as United Nations Day. This recognizes the goals and achievements of the United Nations, which was established in 1945. Iran usually commemorates the anniversary of this particular day by issuing stamps. In the stamps issued in 1962 (Fig. 1) and 1964 (Fig. 2), hands are prominently featured.